Canada Summer Jobs is an initiative of the Youth Employment Strategy, which is the Government of Canada's commitment to help young people between the ages of 15 and 30, particularly those facing barriers to employment, to gain the skills, work experience and abilities they need to transition successfully into the labour market.

Abuse Never Becomes Us (A.N.B.U.) is a non-for-profit organization that works with survivors of childhood sexual abuse (CSA) within the Tamil community. Our mandate is to provide holistic support to promote healing with survivors as well as to raise awareness and build capacity through collaborations and partnerships. We are looking for student employment opportunities to work on projects during the summer.

Responsibilities:

- Outreach worker will provide information and presentations on childhood sexual abuse for the general public, government departments, community organizations, schools and groups.
- Outreach worker will assist and collaborate in the development and the provision of community-based services.
- Outreach worker will partner with local family violence committees to develop and coordinate responses to Childhood Sexual Abuse within the Tamil community.
